

146 PRAISE YE THE LORD

G/D                    A/D            G/D                    A/D G/B A D
Praise ye the LORD. Praise the LORD, O my soul.

G            A                    D            G                    A                    D
While I live will I praise the LORD: I will sing praises unto my God while I have any being.
G                                    A                                    D            G            G            A            D
Put not your trust in princes, nor in the son of man, In whom there is no help.

-CHORUS-

G                                    A                                    D            G                    A                    D
His breath goeth forth, he returneth to his earth; in that very day his thoughts perish.
G                                    A                                    D            G            G            A            D
Happy is he that hath the God of Jacob for his help, whose hope is in the LORD his God:

-CHORUS-

G                                    A            D            G                    A                    D
Which made heaven, and earth, the sea, and all that therein is: which keepeth truth for ever:
G            A            D            G                    G            A            D
Which executeth judgment for the oppressed: which giveth food to the hungry.

-CHORUS-

G            A            D            G                    A                    D
The LORD looseth the prisoners: The LORD openeth the eyes of the blind:
G            A            D            G            G            A            D
The LORD raiseth them that are bowed down: the LORD loveth the righteous:

-CHORUS-

G            A            D            G                    A                    D
The LORD preserveth the strangers; he relieveth the fatherless and widow:
G            A            D            G            G            A            D
But the way of the wicked he turneth upside down. The LORD shall reign for ever,

G/D            A/D G/D A/D G/B A            D
Even thy God, O Zion, unto all generations.

-CHORUS-
